Dr. Scott Sprenger, President
The American University of Rome
Via Pietro Roselli 4, 00153
Rome, Italy

Dear Dr. Sprenger,

Congratulations! The Delaware Department of Education has reviewed your application for renewal of your school's operating license in the State of Delaware. It has been determined that The American University of Rome meets the current requirements for renewal of approval and has been granted an extension of its operating license through the State of Delaware. This approval allows The American University of Rome to continue to offer courses, programs and/or degrees to Delaware residents. The operating license is in effect until December 31, 2025 contingent upon continued accreditation by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education and ~~the appropriate authority in Washington, D.C.~~

It is the responsibility of The American University of Rome to adhere to Delaware laws and regulations. ¹² Additional approvals and submissions may be required for programs intended for licensure. Any questions regarding additional requirements may be submitted to

The American University of Rome is required to submit any renewals or changes to national, regional, or state accreditation to the Delaware Department of Education.
